--	--	--

Tis the season of feelings of joy, and feelings of generosity. But for some it is a time of waiting. If only our long-desired conclusion could be wrapped in lovely boxes on December 25th. If you are in this season of waiting serve Him and feel His unending love.

At Christmas we celebrate the beginning of the greatest love story ever told: The Story of Jesus. He came to earth as a fragile baby, to live as we live, see what we see, feel as we feel, and to die-all of this for us. This year may your heart and soul experience the radiant love that God shared with the world that very first night. Let Him be your guide, your teacher, your healer.

As we look to the new year our spirits are often in need of a renewal- something to restore our faith. When we hold on to the love of Christ we have a purpose, potential, and a promise. When we hold on to His love, we know that good things lie ahead, and that our journey is part of it all. So, hold on, there is more than a light at the end of the tunnel... there is a beautiful, glorious sunrise.

“And we have come to know and have believed the love that God has in us.

God is love and the one who resides in love resides in God, and God resides in him.”

1 John 4:16
